Dear Commission,

I am writing the Commission to express my disapproval of your draft advisory opinion. I do not believe that Mr. Miller should be allowed to use PAC funds to pay his personal legal bills. Mr. Miller made a personal choice to misinform the public by not disclosing his information that the public had the right to know, and therefore he should be liable for his personal actions. I also believe that people that gave to Mr. Miller's PAC weren't aware that their contributions could be used towards paying for legal fees, and therefore a disclosure of Mr. Miller's intent may have influenced the decision to donate. Lastly Mr. Miller sued Jim Whitaker (former Mayor of the Fairbanks North Star Borough) who in his defense had to pay his legal bills out of his own pocket. Why should Mr. Miller be treated any differently than Mr. Whitaker? Thank you for your considerations.

Sincerely,

Lake Williams

Fairbanks, AK
